

Accolades for CCC-K leader

Posted 1 year ago

The president of the Cultural Coalition of Chatham-Kent, Maureen Geddes, will be honoured for her work by the Ontario Ministry of Citizenship and Immigration in Toronto on Friday.

Geddes will be awarded the Newcomers Champion Award for her contributions to cultural outreach, cultural celebration and connecting and integrating new residents in Ontario communities.

Although submissions were made across the province, Geddes is one of 14 people to receive the award.
